EDITORIAL

When you are asked to do something for someone that will really help do you wait until you are ready, or until the time is more convenient before you do it? Do you say "Wait a minute?" or do you do it willingly and quickly, without thinking of what you are doing? Do you do it, but rather thinking what good you are doing for someone else?

It is every one's job around and waited for the other fellow to do good, how much good would be done in this world?

Service, in the best sense of the word, is not serving for your own personal welfare, but for someone else who needs you.

We have a fine example of real service right here in Phoenix. Our school board, after being authorized to expend $5000 on our new gym, did not wait until their busy farming season was over, they jumped right in and began work on it. "What should we have thought of them if they had waited until winter to begin? We should have been sorry that the work could not have been started earlier. Now, with the board putting all their time in doing this work for us and the community, with no thought of personal reward, we feel greatly indebted to them. Don't you think that this is an example of real service."

FAIR WORK

The Phoenix schools are very proud of the fact that both our grammar and high schools won first prize at the county fair last year.

We hope to be able to do the same this year and in order to do so we must begin early and work hard as we did last year.

Each class is to be responsible for each student's work on exhibit. For instance, the biology class are putting their drawings and experiments with the write ups in a note book so they can be preserved for the fair next fall. The history classes have maps to draw for this work and the English classes have book reviews and themes which can be preserved for exhibition.

Mrs. Morse, "Tie this sentence: Let the cow be taken out to the pasture. What word?"

Meredith, "The cow."

Servant, "The garbage man is here."

Mrs. Mickey (absent minded), "Tall him we don't want any."

I'M A POET

I'm a poet
 Though the world don't know it
 But my feet show it,
 They are -cangfellows.

Basket Ball Prospects.

The prospects look very much better for a basket ball team as Scott Lorne and Roy Harleson entered school Monday morning. Scott played forward on the Talent team last year and Roy played running guard on the Phoenix team last year. Both have shown and will again show the people that they are real sports and can play real basket ball.

Frank, "Scott was horribly run led yesterday."

Glenn, "How was that?"

Frank, "He had on his all-wool sport coat and when he was put under the shower it shrank so fast that he was crushed before he could get it off."

Elsie, "Which side of your face did you shave this morning?"

Everett, "The outside."

Frances Willard's Day Celebrated.

On Friday afternoon, Oct. 25, at 1:30 the pupils and teachers of the Phoenix schools assembled in the school auditorium to observe Frances Willard day by a program given by different grades of the school. Several parents were also present as follows:

The object of the day and Mrs. Mr. Tyrrell.

Flag salute-----Assembly
Song American-----School
Biographical Sketch of Frances Willard-----With My
Cigarettes-----Primary Room
Hymn of Patriotism-----Fifth and Sixth Grades.

Some astonishing Facts-----
Gertrude Childsont.

Alcohol a Efficiency-----
Maudie Nichols.

Cave on Song-----School
America a Creed-----Seventh and Eighth grades.

Remarks-----Mrs. Kerns
Song-----Star Spangled Banner

After the program closed at 2:30 school was dismissed for the day.

Basket Ball

Saturday the delegates from the different schools met at the High school building in Medford to discuss the basket ball season of the Rogue River Athletic Association.

Basket ball this year will not start until the 15th of December. There will be no games of any kind played before that time.

No schedule was made this year, the games will be played whenever two schools are ready.

Scott Lorne.

Glee Club

Mr. Loveland has been trying to organize an orchestra in the school but as there are so many that cannot afford to learn to play, it is very doubtful whether we shall have one this year. We should like very much to have a Glee Club. We think the school is about the right size and there are enough who can sing real well to have a good Glee Club. As everyone is enthusiastic about it we know they will enter into it with joy and have a good vocal one.

Hot Lunches

As the cold days are coming on and so many of the children live out of town, making it impossible for them to go home for a hot lunch we think it would be a very good plan to have hot lunches served here at noon.

The girls could take turns of cooking and washing dishes. A small cheer could be made for the lunch.

We did that in the school two years ago and half of the school took the lunch.

Halloween Social

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 31, the Phoenix Christian Endeavor gave a rather loose Halloween Social at the Clyde Hall.

Everyone enjoyed the fun and refreshments.

Phoenix Class Notes

Margith was absent two days last week on account of sickness. The Audient History class have begun the work in their map books.

Junior Class Notes

We have one more addition to the Junior class as Scott Kerns started to school this week.

Alice Dayton was absent last Friday, nevertheless she sent the phonograph records for the assembly entertainment.

The Juniors didn't know that they had a vaudeville star in the class until last week, when Joseph Angeli proved himself a second to the rare Miss Edwards.

The students of the Sophomore class have been giving oral talks on current events.

WILL POLITE

We wonder what would happen if them ever shaved.

Beats Ever caught a ride.

Scott had a fine time on his bicycle.

Irene would quit playing

"Keep Away" with the little kids.

Frank a bug ran out of gas some night.

Senior Class Notes.

Dorothea McClain, President of the Senior class is out of school because she is ill. She probably will be out of school the greater part of this week.

The Senior class have finished studying Latin.

She: "He wore my picture over his heart and it stopped a bullet."
He: "I'm not surprised. It would stop a shot."

Wise sayings.

"What is life without a job?"

"Balls, and the world rolls with you."

"Love, and you keep alone."

"The deeper you dive in the ocean of thought,
The richer the pearls to the surface are brought."

Annual Teacher's Meeting.

The teachers of the Phoenix schools attended the Annual County Teachers meeting at Medford, October 27, 1923.

Superintendent Churchill was not present on account of sickness so his place was taken by Prof. Reed of O. A. C.

Opening Exercises.

Every morning from 8:00 till 9:10 a program is put on for opening exercises. Each week a different class has on duty and it is up to them to furnish the entertainment for the first 10 minutes every morning for that week. This gives every one a chance.

This is quite educational for the pupils, and indeed some very fine work has been given and we expect to have better each week. The programs usually consist of poems, selections, speaking, singing (very often duets or solos etc.), current events and good jokes told by all the members of the school, and sometimes we are lucky enough to have someone who is not a member of the school come in and give us something extra.

OUR GYM

This morning (Monday) the contractor (Mr. Lockwood) of Medford, met with the school board at the school grounds to fix a definite place for the gym and survey the ground so they could set the building square with the town.

The first load of lumber was brought to the ground Monday morning, and the students all feel like having a yell rally in honor of the taxpayers and all those that are interested in the gym.

The contractor says that the gym will be built and ready to play in by the 15th of January.

We will have to play B. B. in the gymnasium until then while but we will do our best to make sure we will soon have our gym.

The Dream in Fairy Land.

I dreamed I went out to take a walk one evening. As I was walking along I met a little fairy and the fairy bowed and said, "Good Evening", and asked where I was going. I said I was going out for a walk. As we walked along we could see the little dew drops on the grass that sparkled like little diamonds in the moonlight.

"If you will come with me I will show you my pretty garden," said the fairy.

"Oh, thank you," said I.

We walked toward the "West" till we came to a pretty little "Brown" house with a green lawn, and there were so many "White" birds there. I asked, "Who lives here?"

The fairy said, "Mr. Town-Smith."

We walked on a little farther and came to a beautiful garden with "Roses" or "Ferns" along the walk. I said, "Oh, what are those on that bush?"

The fairy said, "Those are 'Roses'."

Then on the other side of the walk was a bush of "Roses" berries. Also there were red "Garden" beans. There were sweet "Wildflowers", "Violets", and "Roses". I asked the name of the beautiful white "Rose".

The fairy said, "That one's name is Rebecca. The name of this little pink rose is 'Doris'."

Next we came to a lake that was surrounded by "Reeds". There were "Fish" in the lake. I saw some one cooking.

I said, "Who saw that one?"

The fairy said, "That is the 'Fisher'."

Next we came to a grove. There were birds chattering in the trees. One was a "King" bird and the other was a parrot and the king bird said, "I am hungry. I wish I had one of those fish in the lake."

The parrot laughed and said, "I'd rather have a cracker."

As we passed on out of the grove we saw a light and there was Mr. "Moon" with his right arm raised high. Just over the top stood a little white church house. The "Parson" lived close by.

Mark! What is that I hear?

We stopped to listen and the fairy said, "Oh, those are the 'Angels' singing."

So the fairy bade us "Good Night".

Beth Parsons

5th Grade.

7th and 8th Grade Notes.

Phoenix is welcoming pupils from far and near, the latest arrival from afar being Lillian Nedrahl from Great Falls Montana who has entered the seventh grade.

Bernice Sears was ill Wednesday of last week and had to be sent home.

We have a new music teacher, Mr. Erskine who seems to be well liked by those who are taking lessons of him.

Helen Tetz and Roy Burleson entered school Monday; they are enrolled in the eighth grade.

Lila West, who has gone to this school for nearly three years will leave to-day or to-morrow. She will go to a teacher's college at three miles from Phoenix. She is not very anxious to go, for she liked Phoenix school and her playmates. We all hope she will sometime come back to see us, for she was loved by all.

Billie: "Mr. Tyrrell, I can't find cousin in the dictionary."

Mr. Tyrrell, "It is in there, isn't it?"

Billie, "Well I've looked down the cusses as far as I can and I haven't got to cussin' yet."

Little by little

"Little by little,"

The little boy said,

As he was paddled

And went to bed,

"Little by little,

I'm learning to know

That I cannot fool

By Mother so."

Notice is hereby given that the school board will receive sealed bids up to Nov. 17, for $5,000, negotiable warrants denominated $50 or payable in one two and three years.

T. V. Williams
Clerk.

The Ladies Aid of Phoenix gave a Harvest home supper at Clyde Hall Friday evening, Oct. 26. They had one of the 320 Fashioned Chicken suppers for which the ladies of Phoenix are noted.

There was a very large crowd. The L-dies made the sum of $86.41. There was but very little expense.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE COMMUNITY.

Please keep November 23d open.

There are going to be two short laughable, interesting plays given at the school that evening.

We want everyone to come.

On Halloween Eve.

After the C. E. Social about twenty of the young people and Mrs. Lickey, one of the teachers, had a Weenie Roast Supper on Bear Creek.

After enjoying toasting the weenies and eating them, many spooky stories were told by the different ones.

All had a good time and were able to be at school the next day.

JONES

Mrs. Jones, "You seem to be working under a delusion."

Mildred, "No this is a fact."

What she would do.

"What would your father do if I told him I wanted to marry you?" asked Andrew.

"He'd refer the matter to me," promptly replied Jeannette.

"And what would you do?" he asked hopefully.

"I'd refer the matter to the young man who proposed to me and was accepted while you were trying to make up your mind."

Heid a bald-headed man to a waitress held.

"See here, young woman my coach's cold."

She scornfully answered, "I can't help that,

If the damned thing's chilly, put on your hat."
